

Appropriately billing procedure code 80053, 84443, 85025

Based on the AMA CPT® manual for code 80050 (general health panel), this code includes comprehensive metabolic panel (80053), blood count, thyroid stimulating hormone (TSH) (84443), and complete blood count (CBC) (85025). However, the MO HealthNet fee schedule does not allow payment for CPT 80050; therefore, CPTs 80053, 84443, and 85025 should be billed separately when performed on the same date of service (DOS) and reported on the same claim.

Any claims received not following the guidance provided will result in a denied claim and will require the submission of a corrected claim, to rectify the denial.
